13 April 2023

Case title Appeal of decision under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 - Peter Zonneville v Secretary, Department of Education

Your request to waive the fee for your Request for sound recording has been refused for the following reasons:

Reasons given as special circumstances do not justify the fee being waived.

If you do not pay the fee of $45.00 by 14 April 2023 the Registrar may reject and dismiss your application.

You can pay the fee by credit card by calling NCAT on telephone 1300 006 228. Alternatively, you can pay at your nearest NCAT registry or Service NSW.

If you are a pensioner or student receiving an allowance or receiving help from legal aid or a community legal centre, you may be eligible to pay a reduced fee. For more information visit www.ncat.nsw.gov.au

Case title	Peter Zonneville v Secretary, Department of Education Application under Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

Dear Mr Zonneville

I refer to your correspondence received on 5 April 2023.

The following documents are returned to you as they contain the name of a Tribunal member in an email address, and as you have been informed, any documents containing this detail will not be actioned.

Bundle 5 containing Request for sound recording, Request for fee waiver, General application form - fee waiver, which while does not contain a tribunal member name, is part of this bundle. In addition the registry does not accept credit card authority forms from you.

yours faithfully

Registrar
